

COMING GAME MAY BREAK DEADLOCK

Record Between V. P. I. and North Carolina Is Tie at Present.

SIZING UP THE TEAMS

Tarheels Are as Yet Unknown
Problem—Virginia Eleven Pulls Up.

THE game of football between the University of North Carolina and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, which will be played here Saturday, will, if the present indications are correct, be the best exhibition of the kind to be seen in Richmond during this football season. Although in the early part of the season it was supposed that both teams were crippled by the absence of all players, it has been shown that a goodly sprinkling of veterans are on the list of both, and the new men are of a quality to be well noted.

Although the team from V. P. I. has fewer veterans than the North Carolina, the Virginia team has a larger percentage of men who have been playing ball at the institute since they were freshmen in former years. The training aid in this way has served to fit them to play on the Virginia team.

V. P. I. Line-Up.

Of the old men at V. P. I. this year are Nutter, captain; Tredwell, Tredwell, Cunningham and Henson. All of them played in the greater number of games last year, and are good men. Nutter is known to be one of the best ground gamblers through the line in the state, and will, by virtue of his experience and position, run the team Saturday. Tredwell and Cunningham have both played on the Virginia and as such, for the last three years, and have gained thereby a good deal of experience. They are both men of heavy build and good physical development, and will certainly give a good account of themselves against North Carolina.

Branch is another product of the class team, and being that the extremely heavy weight of last year's team would have kept him from landing in the 1906 team. He is fast and strong, and has learned the game from the hardest school there is—the scrub team. With the rules this year favoring the light, fast man, Branch will be a source of strength to the team that will not be surprised in the ordinary run of play.

Smith, the full back, is another recruit from the class team. In 1904, as captain of the football team, he was called on to lead the Tarheels against the academy of football in the state. He was held back, but not until this fall has he come out for the Varsity.

Smith made a fine first week at practice, and has been kept in the position of full back since. He is fast and strong, and carries the ball well. It is expected that he will be one of the best ground gamblers in the state.

The withdrawal of Cunningham from the team last week, and the fact that Cunningham was forced to leave the team from last week, Nutter, however, is as great a star at the latter position as before, and no fear is expressed in this regard. He will fill the place made vacant by the change, and is fast and strong, and carries the ball well. It is expected that he will be one of the best ground gamblers in the state.

The punting problem for the Tarheels has been solved by the appointment of Cunningham, a prep school freshman. Although Cunningham is very fast and has played on an average of fifty yards in all the games played this year, he is not a punter, and the Tarheels will have to look to the future for a punter.

The Carolina Team.

The Carolina team is a secret unknown problem. Though they have lost a great many men, the new men are said to be good, and the Tarheels are reaching for a win in this game. It will be a question after the game if the Tarheels will win. All the games played this year have been with small teams and the Tarheels have won all of them.

The records of the past between the two teams are a tie. Out of ten games played, Carolina has taken three, and V. P. I. the other seven. The others were tied. During the last four years, one game was tied and two won by the Tarheels.

From an standpoint, the game Saturday will be interesting, to say the least. Carolina does not play Virginia this season, and the Tarheels are reaching for a win in this game. It will be a question after the game if the Tarheels will win. All the games played this year have been with small teams and the Tarheels have won all of them.

MUST HAVE BUILDING.

Ex-Senator Davis Will Bear Expense
if West Virginia Will Not.

FARMINGTON, Md., October 24.—Ex-Senator Henry C. Davis has written a letter to Governor Dawson, of West Virginia, urging the immediate beginning of work on a building for West Virginia at Farmington, and saying that should the Legislature, which does not meet until January, fail to make an appropriation for such a building, he will himself arrange for payment for the building.

S.S.S. KILLS THE GERMS OF SCROFULA

The laws of nature and heredity are fixed and invariable. Parents who are related by the ties of blood, or who have a consumptive tendency, or family blood taint, are sure to transmit it to their children in the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, weak eyes, hip disease, pale, waxy complexions, emaciated bodies, running sores and ulcers, and general waxy constitutions are the principal ways in which the disease is manifested. Those who have inherited this blighting trouble may succeed in holding it in check during young, vigorous life; but after a spell of sickness, or when the system has begun to weaken and lose its natural vitality, the ravages of the disease will become manifest and sometimes run into Consumption. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and forces out the scrofulous deposits, kills the germs and completely cures the disease. It changes the quality of the blood by removing all impurities and poisons and supplying this vital fluid with rich, health-sustaining qualities. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine and is especially adapted to systems which have been weakened and poorly nourished by scrofulous blood. Literature on Scrofula and medical advice free.

ARGUMENTATIVE PUGS DIVIDE UP

Coplin and Pacini Settle Dispute
by Agreeing to Split Gate Receipts.

BY AGREEMENT between the managers of "Kid" Coplin and "Kid" Pacini, the two pug dogs who furnished the preliminary battle at the Exposition, the gate receipts were divided equally between them. The agreement was reached after much argument on both sides, and was a concession on the part of the managers of Coplin, to whom the fight was awarded by the referee.

Before he left for Columbus, Ohio, Referee Hoover signed a statement to the effect that the fight was awarded to Coplin without qualification, and in this statement the Coplin managers based their argument for the purse.

Pacini, however, claimed that he had received a square deal, and he refused to agree to any settlement which gave him less than half the gate money. The holder of the purse refused to turn over the money to either unless both sides were agreed to his disposition, and there the matter stood until yesterday, when Mann, the manager of Coplin, agreed to settle the matter by allowing Pacini to have half the money.

Both sides are now satisfied with the arrangement, and both men are ready and willing to have another try at each other, if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Certain it is, however, that the fight will not be held in Petersburg. Both fighters and enthusiasts are ready to go as far away from home after the trouble they experienced Monday night. It is certain, at least, that newspaper men will not be present without at least a detachment of the Blues as protection in case of a probable riot.

In the general confusion and anxiety to tell all about the fight between the pug dogs, the Coplin-Pacini fight Monday night, the fact that the preliminary fight between the pug dogs, at Columbus, Ohio, and George Herbert, of the city. The bout between those pug dogs was far more interesting, from a spectator's point of view, than the scrap was. The little men went for three rounds, and showed that they were both clever and fast.

The first round was merely an introduction. The men simply felt for each other, and no heavy blows were passed. In the second, however, the Richmond boy found an opening and landed with terrific force on the other's jaw. From then on things were interesting. Mackey hit Herbert whenever and wherever he wished and had him winded and done up at the close of the round.

In the third round, Herbert went to the floor three times, and took the count each time. Mackey showed that he had things all his way and did not fail to land when he wanted to. At the end of the round Herbert looked as if he were ready to be carried out, while Mackey was as fresh as a daisy. Of course no decision was given and the fight was declared a draw, but it was evident to the vastest notice that the Richmond boy had been mightily felled by his foreigner.

SEVEN KILLED AND AS MANY INJURED

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., October 24.—By an explosion in the mine of the Cambria Steel Company, late today, seven men are reported to be dead and two seriously but not fatally injured. The explosion is thought to have been caused by the action of gas in setting off a large quantity of dynamite. The explosion occurred in a leading three miles from the mouth of the river. Eighteen men are reported to have been in the building, but no mention is made of this in an official statement given to the Associated Press to-night by the manager of the Cambria Steel Company. The statement says:

"By an explosion of the rolling mill mine of the Cambria Steel Company this evening seven men are dead and two seriously but not fatally injured. It is the present only one of the dead has been identified. He is an American-born mine named Sampson Luther. It is believed the other dead are all foreigners, as are the two injured."

MAY DISMISS THE LEE WARD CASES

Commonwealth Has Difficult Task to Prove Fraud in Elections.

Indications are that the cases of the Commonwealth vs. J. W. Norwood, Peter King and John H. Norwood, who are charged with committing fraud as officers of a primary election at Second District, Lee Ward, in 1905, will never be tried, but that a bill passed will be entered as to them all.

Yesterday, Commonwealth's Attorney D. C. Henson, has charge of the prosecution, the alleged fraud having been charged at the election in which Commonwealth's Attorney Henson was a candidate. Judge Richardson is out of the city and could not be seen last night, but the cases have been pending for over a year, and as no move has been made to try them, it is the opinion of men who are in a position to know much about the matter that they will never be tried.

Quality Did It!

The fact that SCHNAPPS is so widely imitated only proves that it is the best chew—the standard flat plug. Other plugs are made to imitate the size and shape and color of SCHNAPPS—other tags are made to look like SCHNAPPS tags—yet there are more pounds of SCHNAPPS chewed annually than all other similar tobaccos.

SCHNAPPS is made of only choice selections of well matured, thoroughly cured leaf, and in factories as clean as the cleanest kitchen, situated in the very heart of the greatest chewing tobacco growing country, by men of life-long experience in tobacco manufacturing, and who have directed the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company since 1875.

SCHNAPPS has the pleasing, appetizing aroma which created and popularized the fondness for chewing. Expert tests prove that it requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind—and has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers.

Internal revenue statistics show that SCHNAPPS and other of the Reynolds brands won enough chewers in one fiscal year to make a net gain of six and a quarter million pounds, or one third of the entire increased consumption in the United States on chewing and smoking tobacco.
